

Brief Description

The Social/Human Service Consultant uses his/her technical expertise to assist clients in strategically overcoming complex agency issues. Incumbents perform the most responsible and intricate assignments related to public social services such as the analysis of public social service problems and their impact on administration, development of program content, the recommendation of social service policies, and their application toward the solution of broad social service problems; and serve as a member of an administrative review team.

QUALIFICATIONS

- A Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in one or a combination of the following: Business, Marketing, Finance, Healthcare Administration, or Social Science, including Psychology Social Work, Sociology, Counseling, or other specialties in the field of human services; and,
- Two or more years of professional experience as a Registered Nurse, or in social work, special education, psychology, counseling, vocational rehabilitation, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, or a closely related area.